Preconditions

Open the site <https://rozetka.com.ua>

Go to the "Gaming laptops" category.

Steps

- 1 Enter "f" in the text field for the minimum price. The text field should light up in red and notify of an error. It is not possible to click on the "OK" button.

The screenshot shows a user interface for filtering products by price. At the top, the word 'Ціна' (Price) is visible. Below it, there are two input fields: one for the minimum price containing 'f' and another for the maximum price containing '10 000'. A green slider is positioned between these fields. To the right of the fields is a grey 'OK' button. The input field for the minimum price has a red border, indicating an error. An upward-pointing arrow icon is located at the top right of the interface.

- 2 Enter "f" in the text field for the maximum price. The text field should light up in red and notify of an error. It is not possible to click on the "OK" button.

This screenshot shows the same price filter interface as the previous one. The minimum price field now contains 'f', which is highlighted in red. The maximum price field contains 'f' and is also highlighted in red. The green slider is positioned below the fields. The 'OK' button is visible to the right. An upward-pointing arrow icon is at the top right. The input fields for both minimum and maximum prices have red borders, indicating errors.
